

CMA's Submission to the Senate Committee on Social Affairs, Science and Technology as part of its study on prescription pharmaceuticals: Federal levers to address unintended consequences of prescription pharmaceuticals and support public health, quality care, and patient safety

<https://policybase.cma.ca/en/permalink/policy11125>

Policy Type: Parliamentary submission
Date: 2014-Mar-26
Topics: Pharmaceuticals/ prescribing/ cannabis/ marijuana/ drugs

Documents

The image shows a thumbnail of the document file. The text on the thumbnail includes: "CMA's Submission to the Senate Committee on Social Affairs, Science and Technology as part of its study on prescription pharmaceuticals", "Federal levers to address unintended consequences of prescription pharmaceuticals and support public health, quality care, and patient safety", "March 26, 2014", "Submitted by: David Hoyle, Pharmacist, The Pharmacy, Health, Safety, and Environment, Health Canada, Ottawa, Ontario", and the CMA logo.

BR2014-04.pdf

 Read PDF

 Download PDF