JOINT STATEMENT ON PREVENTING AND RESOLVING ETHICAL CONFLICTS INVOLVING HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS AND PERSONS RECEIVING CARE

This joint statement was developed and approved by the Council of Deans of the Canadian Medical Association, the Council of Deans of the Canadian Nurses Association, and the Council of Deans of the Canadian Dental Association.

Principles

The health care system is a complex one, involving many different groups of people. It is a system that is constantly changing and evolving. It is a system that is designed to provide the best possible care for all people. It is a system that is based on the principles of respect, dignity, and compassion. It is a system that is designed to be fair and equitable. It is a system that is designed to be transparent and accountable. It is a system that is designed to be responsive to the needs of all people. It is a system that is designed to be a source of pride and honor for all who work in it.
