THIRD-PARTY FORMS
(Update 2017)

RATIONAL

It is imperative that physicians and healthcare providers on third-party forms have a role in the reduction of healthcare costs and efficiency in the healthcare delivery system. The Canadian Medical Association (CMA) policy provides guidelines to ensure the appropriate use of third-party forms in the delivery of healthcare services. Physicians should be aware of the implications of third-party forms and the potential for adverse outcomes. This policy was developed to address the issue of third-party forms and their impact on the healthcare delivery system.

SCOPE OF POLICY

This policy applies to all physicians and healthcare providers who use third-party forms in the delivery of healthcare services. The policy highlights the importance of the appropriate use of third-party forms and the potential for adverse outcomes.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

- Physicians shall use third-party forms in the delivery of healthcare services.
- The physician should ensure that the use of third-party forms is appropriate and does not result in adverse outcomes for the patient.

Examples of third-party forms include third-party insurance forms, government forms, and patient forms.
