CMA POLICY

Auditing Physician Billings

Purpose:
The CMA has determined that anything that could possibly arise in the auditing of physician billings is being done in a timely fashion.

Methodology:
Physicians' billings may be audited in various ways. This policy is consistent with the requirements of the Canadian Medical Association's Uniform Billable Services.

THIRD-PARTY FORMS
(Update 2017)

RATIONAL

In a patient's assessment and diagnosis of a third-party, there is a role that reflects the policies of those professions and organizations that make up the health care system. Forms used in this context should be reviewed and, where appropriate, revised. This policy sets a framework for the CMA's role in this context. The policy is developed through consultation with other stakeholders to ensure that the policies are consistent with the practice guidelines, best practices and regulatory requirements of the profession, which is the role of the policy development process. This process is intended to provide the framework for form development and to ensure that the policies are consistent with the practice guidelines, best practices and regulatory requirements of the profession, which is the role of the policy development process.

SCOPE OF POLICY

The policy applies to all forms used in third-party situations, including those adopted by the organization's own policies and procedures. It is intended to reflect the goals of the organization's own policies and procedures and to ensure that the policies are consistent with the practice guidelines, best practices and regulatory requirements of the profession, which is the role of the policy development process.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Guidelines:

1. The objective is to provide a framework for the development of forms. This framework is intended to ensure that the policies are consistent with the practice guidelines, best practices and regulatory requirements of the profession, which is the role of the policy development process.

2. The framework is intended to provide a guide for the development of forms. This framework is intended to ensure that the policies are consistent with the practice guidelines, best practices and regulatory requirements of the profession, which is the role of the policy development process.

3. The framework is intended to provide a guide for the development of forms. This framework is intended to ensure that the policies are consistent with the practice guidelines, best practices and regulatory requirements of the profession, which is the role of the policy development process.

4. The framework is intended to provide a guide for the development of forms. This framework is intended to ensure that the policies are consistent with the practice guidelines, best practices and regulatory requirements of the profession, which is the role of the policy development process.

5. The framework is intended to provide a guide for the development of forms. This framework is intended to ensure that the policies are consistent with the practice guidelines, best practices and regulatory requirements of the profession, which is the role of the policy development process.
