For Allies
Black Physicians of Canada guidance on allyship

How You Can Help
- Speak to Black patients, colleagues, personal networks when you see issues
- Analyze these instances to deter the process of your Black colleagues
- Listen when patients or colleagues speak about racism, take note when your patients or colleagues share their own experiences of racism, and share their experiences
- Share these stories with others to help them understand the realities of racism
- Offer to mediate conversations with patients and colleagues when racism is present
- Help to de-escalate situations where racism is being expressed
- Develop cultural humility and empathy
- Work with your colleagues and patients to address racism
- Share the Black Physicians of Canada’s resources and tools
