The evolving professional relationship between Canadian
CMA Policybase - Canadian Medical Association

A. BACKGROUND

The Canadian Medical Association (CMA) is committed to promoting the health, safety and well-being of all Canadians. This commitment includes ensuring that all Canadians have access to high-quality medical care, regardless of their background, race, ethnicity, religion, gender, sexual orientation, or other characteristics. The CMA is dedicated to eliminating health inequities and promoting health equity for all Canadians.

B. POLICY STATEMENT

The CMA acknowledges that health inequities exist and are influenced by a variety of factors, including but not limited to social, economic, and environmental determinants of health. The CMA is committed to addressing these inequities through policies and programs that promote health equity and ensure that all Canadians have access to quality health care.

C. GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The CMA is committed to implementing policies and programs that promote health equity and ensure that all Canadians have access to quality health care. The CMA endorses the following guiding principles:

1. Respect for persons
2. Justice
3. Beneficence
4. Non-maleficence
5. Professionalism

The CMA encourages all members and staff to implement these guiding principles in their work to promote health equity and ensure that all Canadians have access to quality health care.
