CMA Statement on Racism

Recent events have highlighted the challenges and benefits of medical professionalism. The primary goal of medical professionalism is to ensure that all patients receive high-quality care, regardless of their race or ethnicity. This requires the elimination of all forms of discrimination and bias in the provision of patient care.

The Canadian Medical Association (CMA) recognizes the importance of medical professionalism in the delivery of high-quality care. The CMA supports efforts to address systemic racism and promote equity in health care.

The Canadian Medical Association (CMA) is committed to promoting medical professionalism in the delivery of high-quality care, regardless of race or ethnicity. The CMA recognizes the importance of addressing systemic racism and promoting equity in health care.
