Comments on Bill C-6
(Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act)

Submission to the Senate Standing Committee on Social Affairs, Science and Technology

Nov. 20, 1999
Oliver Tate
Parliamentary Assistant

Executive Summary

The Canadian Medical Association supports the principle of protecting the personal privacy of individuals and the confidentiality of their personal information.

The bill proposes to establish a personal information protection and electronic documentation regime in Canada. The bill includes provisions that would

- require organizations to obtain consent for the collection, use or disclosure of personal information,

- establish rights for individuals to access or correct their personal information,

- provide for accountability of organizations that handle personal information,

- provide for a commissioner to enforce the Act,

- provide for enforcement of the Act through penalties.

Overall, the bill is seen as a step forward in protecting personal privacy in the digital age.

Conclusion

The Canadian Medical Association supports the principles of the bill and recommends its passage.
