Appearance before the House of Commons Standing Committee on Health

Dr. Katherine Smart
President of the Canadian Medical Association
May 9, 2022

Thank you for the opportunity to provide testimony before Committee. I am pleased to have this opportunity to discuss the importance of health system performance, and the role of medical professionalism in improving health outcomes. The performance of our health systems, and the funding that supports them, is critical to improving the health and well-being of Canadians. I will focus on the importance of system performance, and the role of medical professionalism in improving health outcomes.
