CMA’s formal submission to the Federal External Panel on assisted dying
https://policybase.cma.ca/link/policy11750

POLICY TYPE
Parliamentary submission

LAST REVIEWED
2019-03-03

DATE
2015-10-19

TOPICS
Ethics and medical professionalism

Documents

Equity and diversity in medicine
https://policybase.cma.ca/link/policy14127

POLICY TYPE
Policy document

DATE
2019-12-07

TOPICS
Ethics and medical professionalism

Documents
The evolving professional relationship between Canadian

A. BACKGROUND

The Canadian Medical Association (CMA) has a long-standing commitment to equity and diversity in medicine. This commitment is reflected in policies and practices that are designed to ensure that all Canadians have access to high-quality medical care, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics. The CMA is committed to promoting the health and well-being of all Canadians, and to ensuring that the medical profession is inclusive and representative of the diverse communities it serves.

CMA STATEMENT ON EQUITY AND DIVERSITY IN MEDICINE

What is it?

The CMA is committed to promoting equity and diversity in medicine. This commitment is reflected in policies and practices that are designed to ensure that all Canadians have access to high-quality medical care, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics.

Who benefits?

All Canadians benefit from equitable access to medical care. By promoting equity and diversity in medicine, the CMA is working to ensure that all Canadians have access to the medical care they need, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics.

Guiding Principles

1. Respect for persons
2. Fairness and justice
3. Non-maleficence
4. Beneficence
5. Autonomy

These guiding principles are based on the CMA’s commitment to promoting equity and diversity in medicine. They are designed to ensure that all Canadians have access to high-quality medical care, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics.

Background to CMA Policy

EQUITY AND DIVERSITY IN MEDICINE

The Canadian Medical Association (CMA) has a long-standing commitment to equity and diversity in medicine. This commitment is reflected in policies and practices that are designed to ensure that all Canadians have access to high-quality medical care, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics.

The CMA’s commitment to equity and diversity in medicine is rooted in the principles of respect for persons, fairness and justice, non-maleficence, beneficence, and autonomy. These principles are designed to ensure that all Canadians have access to the medical care they need, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics.

The CMA’s commitment to equity and diversity in medicine is also reflected in its policies and practices. These policies and practices are designed to ensure that all Canadians have access to high-quality medical care, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics.

The CMA’s commitment to equity and diversity in medicine is based on the belief that all Canadians should have access to the medical care they need, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics. The CMA is committed to promoting equity and diversity in medicine, and to ensuring that all Canadians have access to the medical care they need, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics.

The CMA’s commitment to equity and diversity in medicine is based on the belief that all Canadians should have access to the medical care they need, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics. The CMA is committed to promoting equity and diversity in medicine, and to ensuring that all Canadians have access to the medical care they need, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics.

The CMA’s commitment to equity and diversity in medicine is based on the belief that all Canadians should have access to the medical care they need, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics. The CMA is committed to promoting equity and diversity in medicine, and to ensuring that all Canadians have access to the medical care they need, regardless of their background, race, gender, or other characteristics.
Joint statement on preventing and resolving ethical conflicts involving health care providers and persons receiving care

https://policybase.cma.ca/link/policy202
Organ and tissue donation and transplantation
https://policybase.cma.ca/link/policy14126

POLICY TYPE
Policy document

DATE
2019-12-07

REPLACES
Organ and tissue donation and transplantation (update 2015)

TOPICS
Ethics and medical professionalism
Health care and patient safety

Documents
Supporting the enactment of Bill C-14, Medical Assistance in Dying

https://policybase.cma.ca/link/policy13693

POLICY TYPE
Parliamentary submission

LAST REVIEWED
2019-03-03

DATE
2016-05-02

TOPICS
Ethics and medical professionalism

Documents