CMA CODE OF ETHICS AND PROFESSIONALISM

The CMA Code of Ethics and Professionalism guides the ethical and professional conduct of members and supports the values and principles that underpin the delivery of health care. The Code is a statement of the Canadian Medical Association’s (CMA) position on the ethical and professional obligations that all members have to the public, to their patients, to their colleagues, and to each other.

The Code, as it is now written, reflects the values and principles that are central to the practice of medicine today. It is intended to guide members in their professional conduct and to provide a framework for the resolution of ethical issues that may arise in the practice of medicine.

A. VIRTUES EXEMPLARY OF THE ETHICAL PHYSICIAN

- Compassion: Members shall show compassion and understanding to patients, colleagues, and others with whom they come in contact. They shall respect patients’ right to privacy and shall handle confidential information responsibly.

- Humility: Members shall recognize that their knowledge is limited and that they have much to learn from others.

- Honesty: Members shall be truthful in their professional activities and shall act with integrity and in good faith.

- Integrity: Members shall be scrupulous in the conduct of their affairs and shall seek to advance the best interests of their patients and society.

- Procedural: Members shall be accountable for their actions and shall seek to ensure that they are conducted in a manner that is consistent with the principles of the Code.

JOINT STATEMENT ON PREVENTING AND RESOLVING ETHICAL CONFLICTS INVOLVING HEALTHCARE PROVIDERS AND PERSONS RECEIVING CARE

This joint statement reflects the views of the Canadian Medical Association (CMA), the Canadian Nurses Association (CNA), the Canadian Dental Association (CDA), the Canadian Association of Radiologists (CAR), the Canadian College of Family Physicians (CCFP) and the Canadian College of Family Physicians (CCFP).

Resolutions

The evolving professional relationship between Canadian physicians and our clients is subject to complex ethical issues. These issues can arise in a variety of contexts, including the provision of health care, the ongoing care of patients, and the management of the health care system. The joint statement reflects the views of the Canadian Medical Association (CMA), the Canadian Nurses Association (CNA), the Canadian Dental Association (CDA), the Canadian Association of Radiologists (CAR), the Canadian College of Family Physicians (CCFP) and the Canadian College of Family Physicians (CCFP).
