This thumbnail shows the top portion of the 'Guidelines for physicians in interactions with industry' document. It features the CMA logo at the top, followed by the title 'Guidelines for physicians in interactions with industry' and a sub-header 'CMA POLICY'. Below the title, there is a link to a companion policy: 'See also companion policy Recommendations for physician innovators'. The main text begins with a paragraph discussing the evolving physician-industry relationships in a complex health care landscape, where industry's role in research and education is growing. It notes that while interactions can benefit patients, they also pose risks to professional judgment and patient care.

This thumbnail shows the top portion of the 'Recommendations for Physician Innovators' document. It features the CMA logo at the top, followed by the title 'Recommendations for Physician Innovators' and a sub-header 'CMA POLICY'. Below the title, there is a link to the companion policy: 'See also CMA Policy Guidelines for physicians in interactions with industry'. The main text begins with a paragraph stating that physicians are increasingly taking on leadership roles in medical innovation and entrepreneurship, which brings both opportunities and risks. It defines a physician innovator as someone in a unique position as both a member of the medical profession and an industry stakeholder. The document aims to provide guidance on navigating these roles while maintaining professional obligations to patients and the public.
